AFFAIRS IN GURMANY. BERLIS, 16th Decombor. The importance of yesterday's Cobale in the Reichstag genetred on Count-Herbert Bismarck's miexpected coming to the front as one of the leaders of the Conservative party. The Agenrians selected him to be their champles solely on account of the weight of his historic name, and although his arguments raise tha point not already covered by the opponents of the commercial treation yet the tremshrut vigour Count Herbert Blamarck's language was such striking contrasts to his former parliamentary style that even friends were surprised. and delighted, and the Conservatives, ahandoning the attitude of reserve displayed toward Lim since his father's dismissal from office, applanded him voriferonsly. The Count quoted a promphlet of the Archbishop of Dublin in arguing that, unless the currency question was sellled, the peasurity would be come bankrapt; defended the Farmors' Union as having prevented many discontented rural voters from going over to the Social Democrats, and implored the Gov runicht to remember that more than 20,000,000 persons in Germany were more or less dependent on agriculture for a livelihoad. Continuing, the Count posited one the case of England, where, he claimed, agrieniture was practically rained and the country dependent upon foreign sopplies. This he sai was the canse of the naval panis there, and quoted Cobden's exhicitation to spand £2,000,000 if pecessary to maintain England's naval supremacy, saying that if England lost a great mavel. buttle and her coasts were blockaded she would be compelled to accept peace at any price within eight days, Such was the consequence, the Count concluded, of allowing national agricul-
